

Sallie G. De Golia, MD, MPH

AAP Member 12 years

Clinical Professor

Associate Chair Clinician Educator Line

Associate Residency Director, Adult Psychiatry

Section Chief, Assessment Clinics

Stanford University Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences

Dr. De Golia is Associate Chair for Clinician Educator Faculty Development and the Associate Training Director of Stanford's Adult Psychiatry Residency Program. She has been involved in helping faculty and trainees both locally, regionally, and nationally become better teachers, mentors, and leaders. Dr. De Golia is also Section Chief for Stanford's Assessment and Training Clinics and Director of the Evaluation Clinic where she supervises Time-Limited Dynamic Psychotherapy.

Dr. De Golia is the President-Elect of the American Association of Directors of Psychiatric Residency Training and serves on the Master Educator Committee of the Association for Academic Psychiatry.